DIVISION OF YOUTH DIVERSION AND DEVELOPMENT (YDD)

Refugio Valle, MSW | Director

Brief Update

- Late last year, the Board tasked ODR/YDD and the CEO with leading a collaborative planning process focused on exploring the feasibility of transitioning the responsibilities of Juvenile Probation to a new, reimagined youth justice model.
- We are thrilled to have been able to bring on the W. Haywood Burns Institute to be our lead consultant on this project along with a team of local consultants from the Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Children's Defense Fund, Youth Justice Coalition, and UCLA Bunche Center's Million Dollar Hoods and Black Policy projects.

- The Youth Justice Work Group includes over 150 people from county agencies and community organizations—including youth leaders who have been impacted by the juvenile justice system.
  - First meeting took place in January 2020 and occur once a month.
- Three subcommittees have been established to design recommendations to cover the range of functions involved in transforming Juvenile Probation:
  - 1. 1) Youth Development and Diversion
  - 2. 2) Restorative Options for Youth Formally Processed in the Legal System
  - 3. 3) Alternatives to Placement, Detention, and Incarceration.

ONGOING WORK

- Learning exchanges have begun and will continue several times per month through October.
- · Listening sessions are being scheduled to obtain input for various stakeholders.
- The work will continue until October, when the Work Group plans to submit final recommendations for the reimagined youth justice model to the Board.

DJJ CLOSURE

• In May, the Board tasked us with establishing an additional subcommittee of the Youth Justice Work Group to plan LA County's response to the closure of the Department of Juvenile Justice in collaboration with Probation.

YDD'S RESPONSE TO PROTESTS

Brief Update

RESPONSE TO PROTESTS

- It felt important to the ODR/YDD team and our Diversion services providers to communicate with our law enforcement partners regarding contact with youth under the age of 18 during protests to minimize further involvement with the criminal justice system for as many youth as possible, particularly those.
- YDD and our Diversion services providers are in conversation with our current law enforcement partners about ways for YDD to support keeping youth from entering further into the system.
